Key concepts in the AGS geography curriculum: Anthony Gell Futures and uncertainties Physical landscapes, processes and change Geographers have many transferrable skills that make -School---Human systems and change them highly employable including Locational knowledge and sense of place problem solving, decision making Geography Learning Journey Interdependence and communication. Geographical skills Health, Human Rights and Intervention + Superpowers + A-LEVEL EXAMS the Water Cycle and Water Insecurity the Carbon Cycle and Energy Security There 755 university courses related to Paper 1 – physical geography NEA handed in Christmas of Y13. geography. Paper 2 – human geography 20% of final grade. Paper 3 – synoptic paper ENDOF NEA launched May half term of Y12 YEAR 12 EXAMS Regenerating Places + Tectonic Processes and Hazards Globalisation + Glaciated Landscapes and Change Lake District fieldwork on NEA preparation. Paper 1 – Investigating Geographical Issues Paper 2 – Decision Making Geography GCSE Paper 3 – Applied Fieldwork EXAMS Coastal Processes and APPLIED Weather and Climate change Management Development FIELDWORK climate Desertification DAY 2 Ecosystems under threat Ecosystem processes APPLIED Rural and urban ENDOFYEAR processes and River Processes FIELDWORK 10 EXAMS and Management change DAY 1 Water Resources and Management Uncovering the role of superpowers on cultural and economic geographies. Uncertain Our Restless Global Players Global Cities Futures Planet A unit based on the novel 'Refugee Boy' Festivals by Benjamin Zephania. Africa and the Middle East The Problem Our Populated Coasts Our Extreme with Plastic Planet Planet $\bigcirc\bigcirc\bigcirc$ Our Fragile Local area fieldwork on the changing Planet uses of Wirksworth's market-place and place identity. Primary School Our Amazing Locational knowledge of global and Planet UK environments and locations. Discovering Geography in Understanding of key aspects of human and physical geography. Wirksworth the 21st Century Proficiency in using and interpreting geographical information, including experience of fieldwork.

An introductory unit on why the study of Geography is so relevant and important in the 21st Century.